

BackOffice Associates® Becomes First Sustaining Sponsor of WE CAN

Global Company Headquartered in South Harwich Donates $5,000 to Help Empower Women on Cape Cod to Achieve Lasting Positive Change

Harwich Port, Mass., May 30, 2011 – BackOffice Associates, LLC, the leader in ERP data migration, data governance and master data management solutions for SAP®, Oracle® and other ERP vendors, has donated $5000 to become the first Sustaining Sponsor of WE CAN, the organization dedicated to empowering Cape Cod women to achieve lasting, positive change for themselves and their families.

As a Sustaining Sponsor, BackOffice Associates® has made a commitment to contribute to a mix of activities and programs over the course of a year. Such support provides WE CAN with a stable, ongoing source of support and helps WE CAN meet the steadily increasing demand for services that are not available elsewhere on the Cape.

For 10 years, Cape Cod women have contacted WE CAN when they have found themselves in a crisis, often with multiple issues that can result from a difficult transition such as divorce, loss of spouse, or financial crisis. WE CAN responds with information and referrals, mentoring, free legal services and financial counseling, training and workshops. These services bring increased opportunity, self-sufficiency, stability and lasting positive change for women, their families and, ultimately, the entire Cape Cod community.

“WE CAN provides a unique and vital service to the women of our community,” said Trish Kennedy, CEO of BackOffice Associates. “We are happy to be able to support their mission.”
